

December 24, 1976.

Dear Mr. Morawetz,

Thank you so much for the lovely letter you sent us last May. It was very kind of you to take the time when you are so busy. Thank you as well for the autographed copies of two more piano works, which I hope to learn eventually.

As you requested I am sending you some of the programmes which included your "Suite for Piano." I enjoyed playing it a lot, and everyone liked it immensely. My teacher, Mr. Sevilla, has selected it for the 21-and-under class of the Canadian Music Competitions, and another of his students is now learning it. I also played it both at the International Bach Competition in Leipzig, where I was awarded sixth prize, and at the Casagrande International Competition in Terni, Italy, where I was also a finalist. So perhaps it brings me good luck!

I am also enclosing a copy of the tape I made for the CBC last spring which you may keep. May I use this occasion to wish you and your wife all the best for the new year.

Sincerely,
Angela Hewitt
